

Simon Ruben

Editor / Trainer

Profile

Simon is a fast and creative Editor, with much experience within documentaries, commercials and promos. He would be an asset on any project – we find him to be extremely proactive, and approachable making him perfect for client facing projects. We have had clients bring him in to work on specific projects who have gone on to use him on an on-going basis and also in the capacity of an edit trainer. We have worked together for years and have received nothing short of great feedback, your project would be in safe hands with Simon.
