

Sharon Hedges

Avid offline and online editor

Profile

Sharon is a highly qualified and talented broadcast editor who has been working in the industry for all of her professional career. With a BA Hons degree in Radio, Film, Television and Music Sharon has a deep passion for editing. Working within a live TV environment, she has the ability to be creative, work calmly under pressure and can be left to edit and produce on her own, whilst enjoying working alongside producers to create compelling VT's.

Sharon is confident in working on high pressured edits where she has cut fast turnaround VT's, Strands and Features to broadcast technical standards.
