

Aaron Wheeler

Edit Assistant

Profile

During his two-year Video Production Apprenticeship with The Telegraph, Aaron learnt to develop his editing and motion graphic workflows into what they are today. Since finishing this in 2017, he has continued to practice his understanding of editing as a freelancer.

Software

Adobe Premiere Pro
Adobe After Effects

Experience

Editor and Camera Operator – Freelance

Editing a range of content, from commercial projects to music videos.

Working with clients such as Kings College London, P&O Cruises and The Telegraph.

Creating motion graphic content for several projects.

Camera assisting and operating for commercial, documentary and short films for a variety of clients.

Directing several short films and music videos on a small scale.

Creative Video Apprentice – The Telegraph

Camera Assisting and Operating for a variety of commercial and documentary-based shoots.

Developing creative ideas for commercial videos.

Editing and creating motion graphics form any projects, both documentary and commercial content.