

Ash Jenkins

Editor

Kit Avid, Premiere, Final Cut Pro, DaVinci Resolve

Education Bachelor (HONS) 2.1 Film & Video Degree - in depth study of film history, theory and language.

Documentary

In Vogue: The 1990s

60 min Documentary

Featuring a stellar cast of iconic figures from the worlds of fashion, photography, music and film, this landmark series reveals the inside story of the decade's most celebrated fashion and pop cultural moments and movements, told to us by the people who defined them.

Raw TV

Disney+

Will You Marry Me?

60 min Documentary

A new documentary series based around the work of a London proposal planning agency. We follow the stories of members of the public who enlist the team of proposal planners to devise, organise and stage their marriage proposals.

Button Down

Channel 4

Nothing Bigger: The Road to Jake Paul vs Nate Diaz

30 min Documentary

Jake Paul vs. Nate Diaz promises to deliver knockout drama. 'Nothing Bigger' details the path to Jake's toughest test to date, including contributions from Ariel Helwani, Dan Hardy and Shane Mosley, not to mention the two fighters themselves.

DAZN

ESPN+

The Greatest Rivalry: India vs Pakistan

Docuseries, Series Edit Producer

A docuseries following the greatest rivalry on earth. This film told by two of the most acclaimed cricketers from both sides of the India, Pakistan border documents the history of cricket between the two nations, along with the backdrop of political tension.

Greymatter Entertainment

Netflix

Stardust

90 min Feature Documentary

A film that follows a Norwegian musician as he travels around the world collecting Stardust, with a simple process that NASA deemed impossible.

Sunderland 'Til I Die, Series 3

39 min Documentary

Now it is returning for a third and final run – a two episode mini-series – with the focus very much on Sunderland's emotion-packed 2022 spring charge up the table and a Wembley Play-Off Final victory to secure promotion back to The Championship.

Fulwell 73

Netflix

Dark Water: The Murder of Shani Warren

Turquoise TV

Channel 5

90 min Feature Documentary

A true crime docudrama narrated by police officers who investigated the case of Shani Warren, a young woman whose body was found in Taplow Lake, Berkshire in 1987. Was it murder, or was it suicide?

The Billionaires Who Made Our World: Jeff Bezos

BriteSpark

Channel 4

60 min Documentary

With exclusive access to friends, former colleagues and insiders, the series deep dives into Silicon Valley and beyond to explore the inside story of three of the world's richest men, all giants of the tech world: Bill Gates, Mark Zuckerberg and Jeff Bezos.

6 Captains, Series 1 and 2

Fulwell 73

FIFA

2 x 60 min Documentary

Series follows six of the 2022 World Cup captains, as they compete through the qualifying rounds of the World Cup.

Allen Stanford: The Man Who Stole Cricket

South Shore

Sky Documentaries

60 min Documentary

Allen Stanford the brash Texan Billionaire who sponsored British Cricket in 2008 is behind bars. This 3-part series is a corporate thriller that tells the story of a man that conducted the second largest ponzi scheme that defrauded people around the globe of 8 Billion US Dollars.

All or Nothing: Juventus

Fulwell 73

Amazon Prime

60 min Documentary

This Amazon original follows Juventus during the transition series, as coach Pirlo, team senators and younger players battle for trophies.

Bringing Down the Mumbai Mafia

Minnow Films

Netflix

Feature Length Documentary

This docudrama holds first-hand interview accounts from the police squad who took down the Mumbai mafia – they narrate the battle for the future of Mumbai, which raged on the city's streets in the 1990's.

The Chameleon Killer

Top Hat Productions

Discovery+

90 min Documentary, Editor

Deep in the woods of New Hampshire, police find barrels with the remains of mutilated victims. The hunt for a serial killer stretches to California as detectives unravel a tangled web of abuse and murder created by one man with many fake identities.

Two Weeks In November

Independent Film

Feature Length Drama Documentary

A drama documentary following the astonishing untold story of the operation that toppled Robert Mugabe – the most sophisticated political-military operation in African history.

Stirling

Feature Length Documentary

A feature documentary about the racing legend Sir Stirling Moss, a celebration of his life as a racing driver, posed against fierce opposition – the Italians and Enzo Ferrari. This film explores the most successful career in motorsport ever, even though Stirling never won a world championship title.

Minnow Films

Sky

Dancing For Akeeda

Feature Length Documentary

Faakhir Bestman, a boy from the Cape Town flats, living in adversity – gang violence and shootings – dreams to dance for the Queen and become a world-renowned ballet dancer.

Marquee Films

Feature

People You May Know

Feature Length Documentary

A film about the exploitation of mental health data. Cambridge Analytica by another name. The evangelical church and the exploitation of millions to win elections.

Renegade Pictures

Amazon Prime

Lost At Sea

60 min Documentary

This film follows a young man's personal journey to understand his father – Peter Bird, who died while rowing the Pacific, having years earlier been the first man to row the Pacific solo.

Renegade Pictures

Channel 4

Formula 1: Drive To Survive, Series 2

60 min Documentary

Formula 1: Drive To Survive reveals the true story of the high-octane sport, which goes beyond the fight to be number 1. This docu-series gives viewers exclusive, intimate access to the people in one of the world's greatest racing competitions. This episode followed the Mercedes team, as Lewis Hamilton and Toto Wolff (team principal) strive to set a new world record by winning a 6th consecutive championship, as they deal with the death of the former team executive and racing legend Niki Lauda.

Box to Box

Netflix

The Fighter and The Pimp

60 min Observational Documentary, Editor and Colourist

A documentary that follows Shaki, a female wrestler from the Congo who competes and uses Bokoko, a form of witchcraft to defeat her male opponents. Shaki fights to heal the wounds of street life and rape. Inviting young girls into her home who have suffered rape.

BBC Africa Eye

BBC

Gamblers Like Me

60 min Observational Documentary, Editor and Colourist

This film follows a gambler, as he undercovers the underworld of the Sports Betting industry in Africa his learns more about his own addiction. Nominated for Best Documentary, Sports Journalism Association Awards 2019.

BBC Africa Eye

BBC

Broke

3 x 60 min Observational Documentary, Additional editing

Three-part documentary series exploring how ten years of living under austerity has radically reshaped the social landscape of Britain. Filmed across the UK, this series looks at practical and emotional costs of making ends meet.

Keo Films

BBC 2

The Chocolate Men 60 min Documentary A film about a black males stripping group explores the opportunities available to young black men, the stereotypes so widely held about them in today's society, their relationship to crime, and how they feel in Britain of 2018. This is an opportunity to see young black men in a positive framework. Giving them a voice to show there's more to them than the mainstream media narrative.	Doc Hearts	Channel 4
Sir Trevor McDonald on Martin Luther King 90 min Documentary 50 years after the assassination of Martin Luther King, Sir Trevor McDonald goes to the places he wishes he'd reported from in his twenties meeting the people that once knew the legendary man..	ITV	ITV
Royal Documentary 90 min and 45 min Documentary, Finishing Editor Two documentaries for ITV on two members of the Royal family.	ITV	ITV
Cambridge Analytica 2 x 20 min Documentary, Editor and Colourist Featuring two whistleblowers who broke to the world the exploitative use of FaceBook data harvesting to sway the votes in Elections.	The Guardian / DocSociety	Online
Silas 75 min Feature Documentary The story of a Liberian man, Silas Siakor, who risked everything to cut off warlord Charles Taylor from the timber trade that was helping fund Liberia's 14-year civil war. It continues half a decade later when Siakor, winner of the world's most prestigious grassroots environmental award – the Goldman Prize, attempts to kick-start his country's struggling economy through a sustainable logging industry. Additional editor. Directors: Hawa Essuman, Anjioli Nayar, Executive Production: Steven Markovitz Nomination: Africa Movie Academy Award for Best Documentary	Big World Cinema	Independent Doc Society
Madina's Dream 90 min Feature Documentary Feature length documentary for theatrical release following the lives of several characters who are living through the war in the Nuba Mountains in Sudan. Director & Producer: Andrew Berends	Storyteller Productions	Theatrical
Three Years With Mugabe 115 min Feature Documentary Inspired by his parents' interests for Kwame Nkrumah, Director Roy Aygeman travels to Zimbabwe to try to get an interview with Robert Mugabe. Villain or Hero? What will Mugabe's legacy be? This story echoes over two decades of history, telling the story of Mugabe's relationship with the West. Director: Roy Aygeman	Independent	Theatrical
Me And Me Dad 75 min Documentary, Editor and Colourist A family drama - love, divorce and tragedy told from the point of view of John, Katrine and the rest of the family. This film has a filmmaker biopic theme, where John's catalogue of films become visuals, which are used to illustrate key events in the family story. Directors: Katrine Boorman and John Boorman	Colourframe, Embargo Films	Theatrical

Albino United 66 min Documentary Over the last few years, more than 50 albinos have been murdered in Tanzania, including children and babies as young as six months old. Many more have been attacked with machetes and have had their limbs cut off. In this film the establishment of Albino United demonstrates that attitudes in Tanzania to people with albinism must change and the killings must stop. Diretor: Marc Hoferlin, Executive Producer: Nick Broomfield	Lafayette Film	National Geographic More4
Silencing the Song 40 min Documentary, Editor and Colourist A cinematic follow up to Afghan Star following the Story of Setara, the girl from Herat that was vilified and loved in equal measure after dancing on stage and removing her headscarf on the Contest.	HBO	HBO
Broke 3 x 60 min Documentary, Editor A three-part docu series exploring the lives of families living and working on or below the poverty line.	Keo Films	BBC2
Vote Afghanistan! 78 min Documentary, Producer, Editor, Colourist It follows the 3 main opponents who pose a threat to current Afghanistan President Hamid Karzai. The non-narration film looks at the country's 2nd elections from the view of the Afghan people as well as documenting the vast journey's the candidates travel to spread the message of their campaigns.	Independent	More4
Afghan Star 90 min Feature Documentary 'Afghan Star' is the Afghan version of XFactor where stars compete to obtain the title that heralds them as the country's number 1 singer. The contestants struggle under threat from the Taliban in the competition that is re-uniting the war-torn and divided Afghan people. A powerful film about Western programming in an Islamic republic". Director: Havana Marking WINNER: Best World Documentary Directing Award - Sundance, 2009 WINNER: Best World Documentary Audience Award - Sundance, 2009 NOMINATED: First Appearance Award - IDFA, 2008 Screened at Sheffield, Tribeca, South By Southwest.	Independent	More4
Battle For Haditha 93 min Documentary A drama about a true incident in Iraq where a roadside bomb blew up a US Marine humvee killing 1 Marine and wounding 2 others. In the following hours Marines killed 24 civilians. Director and Producer: Nick Broomfield. WINNER: Best Director Award at San Sebastian, 2007 WINNER: Best Drama Documentary at The Grierson Awards 2008	HanWay Films	Film4 / More4
Blur: No Distance Left to Run 90 min Feature Documentary The film was shot throughout the band's 2009 rehearsals and subsequent summer tour. It features previously unseen archive material alongside new interviews with the four band members. Going back in time it covers the birth of Britpop in the Nineties and the band's eventual split in 2003.	Pulse Films	EMI BBC2 Theatrical Release

Shooting Ghosts

66 min Documentary, Producer, Director and Editor

A film that looks at the making of the film Ghosts and investigates the lives led by Chinese illegal immigrant workers in the UK.

Executive Producer: Nick Broomfield, Director: Marc Hoferlin

Released by Tartan Films on the Ghosts DVD

Shown at International Documentary Festival Amsterdam

Lafayette Films

More4

Ghosts

97 min Feature Documentary, Assistant Editor

A Nick Broomfield drama about the Chinese cockle pickers who died in Morecambe Bay.

Director and Producer: Nick Broomfield

Beyond Films

Channel 4 / More4

His Big White Self

97 min Political Documentary, Assistant editor

Film looking at the violent history in South Africa and is a sequel to 'The Leader, The Driver and The Drivers Wife.

Archivist, Post Production Coordinator.

Director and Producer: Nick Broomfield

Lafayette Films

Channel 4 / More4

Short Documentary

A Climate for Conflict

15 min Short Documentary, Editor and Colourist

Following the worst drought in Somalia's history, in 2011 hundreds of thousands of Somalis crossed over the border into Dadaab Refugee Camp. This poetic film follows 5 characters and their struggle to survive in the deadliest drought they have ever seen, with a narrative that meanders through Somalia's cinematic arid terrain it tells the story of how climate and conflict fuel the other and how one day "With these weather patterns... maybe the land, a piece of desert called Somalia, will exist on the map of the world, but Somalis cannot survive".

Executive Producer: Beth Murphy

GroundTruth Films

Frontline Platform

Matildah: A Return To Joy

6 min and 30 min, Director, Editor and Grader

Matildah is a documentary following a young girl as she is transformed by a group of women who combat issues of social stigma towards Fistula in Western Kenya.

Big Life

15 min Short Documentary

Documentary edited to the style of Terrance Malick film, 'Big Life' explores the horrific escalation in the poaching of African wildlife. This film takes its audience on a poetic journey to Amboseli where horrific issues are revealed.

Independent

Still Human, Still Here

13 min Short Documentary Producer, Director, Editor

A film about Refused Asylum seekers living in the UK.

Amnesty International

Night Commuters: Children of Northern Uganda

Vivid Features / Nairobi

13 min Short Documentary Editor, Producer and Director

A short documentary filmed in the conflict region of Northern Uganda. This film follows the Night Commuters who must flee their homes to walk many miles to protected shelters in fear of rebel abduction.

Third year film won Best Producing at the student Film Finest Awards

Uganda: Prospects for Peace

Vivid Features / Nairobi

ITN / Channel 4

8 min News Video Producer, Director, Editor

ITN INDY news piece made for Channel 4 news. I worked with Richard Dowden, head of the Royal African Society on a piece which followed the ongoing peace talks in the region.

Betraying The Game

BBC

BBC

15 min Documentary

A documentary about FIFA referees accepting bribes in Ghana.

Irish Abortion Referendum

The Guardian

BBC

15 min Documentary

Programme set in Limerick, Ireland to explore the views of the NO voters ahead of the Abortion Referendum and the role of the Catholic church in today's Ireland.

Sugar

BBC

BBC

3 x15 min Documentary, Editor and Colourist

A three film series for BBC about the lives of young women in Kenya, their fascination with socialites and modern lifestyles that seek out sponsorship from older men in return for sexual favours.

Factual Entertainment

Michael Smith: Deep North

Bedlam Productions

BBC4

1 x 30 min TV Show, Editor and Colourist

Follows writer Michael Smith as he takes a journey back to Newcastle.

Lions Den, Series 1, 2 and 3

Sony Pictures Distribution UK

39 x 43 min TV Show, Editor and colourist

Reality TV show where entrepreneurs pitch their business ventures to 'the Lions', Ash and his Kenyan-based post production company, supplied the production with a comprehensive post production package; editing, colour grading and audio mix.

Fearless Foods

Fox

Channel 4

10 x 24 min TV Series, Editor and Colourist

Inspired by the series following Kiran Jethwa as he discovers food in Tales from the Bush Larder. Fearless Foods takes cooking to a whole new level, where Kiran travels three continents to find extremely hard to "get" ingredients (harvest or mine) and create a dish for the people he visits. Amongst other precarious situations Kiran must descend dangerous cliffs, free dive and climb 30ft high palm trees to complete his recipe.

Going For Green

13 x 43 min TV Show

Show for East Africa that looks at the greenest technologies and solutions, which are having a positive impact on the lives of Africans. Packaged with motion graphics, the program becomes both educational as well as informative as it brings to public attention the most innovative projects that are going for green.

Quite Bright Films, Kenya

NTZ Citizen

Royco Fuata Flava

6 x 44 min TV Show, Editor and Grader

Cooking show where contestants' cooking skills are put to the test and receive serious criticism by judge Chef Ben as they compete to win 1 million Kenya Shillings.

Quite Bright Films, Kenya

NTZ Citizen

Fearless Chef (Bush Larder)

10 x 44 min TV Show, Editor and Grader

This series follows Kiran Jethwa around Kenya as he discovers food in Tales from the Bush Larder. Fearless Chef takes cooking to a whole new level, where Kiran travels three continents to find extremely hard to "get" ingredients (harvest or mine) and create a dish for the people he visits. Amongst other precarious situations Kiran must descend dangerous cliffs, free dive and climb 30ft high palm trees to complete his recipe.

FOX

National Geographic

Groove Theory

10 x 26 min TV Series

Groove Theory is a musical drama series directed for the stage and shot for television.

Kijiji Entertainment,

Zuku

Stay

13 x 23 min TV Series, Producer, Director, and Editor

This series follows an interracial couple in Nairobi, the first TV series in Kenya to be sponsored by Nokia. Season 1 follows a Kenyan businesswoman called Nubia, who has fallen in love with an American man called Shane. Problems arrive when his mother comes to stay and tries to ruin the engagement. A hilarious drama comedy.

Corder Productions

NTV

The Samaritans

2 x 23 min Pilot

These two episodes are a pilot for an upcoming TV series about an NGO called Aid For Aid, which does absolutely nothing.

Director: Salim Keshjavee

Xeinium Productions

Ian Wright: Out of Bounds

6 x 45 min Factual

Post Editor for 3 episodes, reshaped the look of the past series into a more beautiful, organic style and completed the Conform, Grade and Online of all six programmes to cover diverse styles suiting the locations of Venezuela, Syria, Cuba, Okinawa, Sri Lanka and Siberia.

Roast Beef Productions

Travel Channel

Monster Moves, Series 4

2 x 45 min Factual Entertainment

Can a team move 189 houses to clear the way for an open pit Gold Mine? Houses are lifted off their foundations on steel rigs and moved intact to new locations miles away. This series of Monster Moves follows some of the hardest house moves.

Windfall Films

Discovery