Someone's Daughter, Someone's Son

Dartmouth Films

Cinema release

Feature Documentary

With unchallengeable authenticity and authority, this feature tells the stories of people who have lived on the streets of Britain – those who have escaped, those still there and those helping others to get off the streets. Moving, enlightening and enraging, the film challenges public perceptions of homeless people and shows how we can stop homelessness for ever.

The Greatest Show Never Made

Factual Fiction

Amazon Prime

60 min Documentary

The show explores a stranger-than-fiction story taking place in the early noughties, where a self-styled Producer hoaxed a group of keen young people into participating in a fake reality TV show. After the project fell apart, a group of these contestants, determined not to let this stop them from realising their dream of TV stardom, found shelter in the cameraman's flat and turned it into their own Big Brother house.
