

Kyle Rainford

Editor

Profile

Kyle is a video editor with wide-ranging experience. He edits on Premiere Pro, using After Effects for motion graphics. He approaches each project with a fresh enthusiasm, bringing his experience to bear in a creative way. From ten second ads to half-hour documentaries, his work has appeared on BBC, ITV, Channel 4, many digital channels and online. In recent years he has concentrated on short form work especially commercials. With a degree in modern languages he often edits French and German content too.
