Pompeii: House of Treasures

60 min Documentary

The latest findings as the biggest archaeological dig in Pompeii for a generation reaches its climax. Told through the drama of the dig and stylised, fresco-inspired animations, House of Treasures continues to paint a vivid picture of what life was like in Pompeii, as well as the horror faced by the residents as the volcano erupted in AD 79.

How The Holocaust Began

60 min Documentary

Deep dive into the roots of the Holocaust story to find the evolutionary trail that turned an inhuman urge to get rid of whole populations of humans into the industrialised process of mass murder we call The Holocaust. We follow archaeological work at forgotten killing sites across Poland, the Baltics and Romania - working with pioneering experts including Caroline Sturdy Colls, Richard Freund and Sebastian Różycki - using technology such as LiDAR, GPR and GeoSLAM.

Gary Numan Resurrection

90 min Feature Documentary

Synth-pop pioneer Gary Numan makes an emotional return to Wembley Arena, 40 years after announcing his retirement at the height of his fame. Beautifully shot on vintage lenses, the film explores Gary's early success, struggles with fame, and his journey to self-belief with the support of his wife, Gemma. A moving portrait of resilience and creative rebirth, with rare access to Gary and his inner circle. The film also features insights into his evolving music and includes interviews with Dave Grohl, Jean-Michel Jarre, Trent Reznor, Hans Zimmer, and John Foxx.

Joe and Sarah Marriot are a pair of European campers who have pitched their tent for a little R & R at a campsite in France. The other families that have come to the site on holiday provide great comedy and plenty of people watching for the "perfect" Marriots. Of course, you'd expect hilarity from characters dubbed the Fitness Family, Mr. and Mrs. Topless, Fatty Granada, and the In-the-Trades. But the Marriots' enjoyment of observing the outside world turns inward when the entrance of Early Bird, a free-spirited female, shakes up their little nest.
